SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

Eligible individuals include any Choggiung Ltd. Shareholder enrolled full-time in a qualifying post-secondary educational institution (college or vocational school).

In order to be qualified, the institute must meet the criteria defined in 26 U.S. Code section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii)*. Institutions include colleges, universities, vocational and technical schools.

Applicants must submit the following:

- ☐ a completed scholarship application
- ☐ a letter of interest that includes applicants intentions, expected field of study, goals and expectations
- ☐ a copy of the most recent official transcript (high school or post-secondary institute)
- ☐ 2 letters of reference (see page 4)
- ☐ a letter of acceptance from the institution that the applicant plans to attend.
(If received scholarship the previous year and/or are attending same school on most current official transcript, letter of acceptance is not necessary)

Selection of successful applicants will be the responsibility of the Choggiung Educational Endowment Foundation Committee and is based upon prior academic performance, performance on tests designed to measure ability and aptitude for post-secondary work, recommendations from instructors, financial need and conclusions as to the applicant's motivation, character, ability, potential, goals and expectations. Note that the criteria are not listed in order of priority or emphasis.

If you are awarded a scholarship, in accordance with the Internal Revenue Service's rules, regulations, and required reporting; your name, address, and purpose of the grant will be disclosed in our tax return, which is made available for public inspection.

* Educational organization which normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly enrolled body of pupils or students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are regularly carried on", 26 U.S. Code section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii)
