

4. Describe your experience with reading and understanding audits, budgets, financial statements and related reports.

5. Please describe your understanding of the role, major duties and responsibilities of a member of the Choggiung Board of Directors.

6. How do you think the Choggiung board should balance the goal to maximize shareholder dividends and efforts to meet the social needs of our shareholders?

7. What is your understanding of the heritage of our shareholders and describe why Choggiung's ANCSA lands within Bristol Bay are culturally significant?

8. What is your vision for the future of Choggiung Limited that you would like to advance as a member of the Board?
9. List all positions and offices presently and previously held with Choggiung or any subsidiaries:
10. If you are a current director, how many years have you served as a Choggiung director:
11. Please list any family members who either are or have served as a director, nominee, or executive officer of Choggiung or any of its subsidiaries:
12. Please indicate whether any of the following have occurred to you during the past 10 years:
- a. bankruptcy or insolvency;
 - b. criminal charges for any offense other than traffic violations or a minor offense;
 - c. pled guilty or no contest to any type of criminal offense other than a traffic violation or other minor offenses;
 - d. faced any allegations, findings or judgments that you engaged in unethical or illegal business practices, violated fiduciary duties, or violated securities laws.

Yes No

If yes, describe the circumstances:

13. Describe any financial transactions or business relationships you or any member of your family has had with Choggiung Limited or any of its subsidiaries:

14. Alaska law and Choggiung's Bylaws contain certain qualifications for all directors.
 - a. A Director must be a holder of voting stock in the Corporation and must have attained the age of eighteen (18) years.
 - b. A person is disqualified from serving as a director if such person has been:
 1. declared to be unsound of mind by a court;
 2. convicted of a felony;
 3. directed or ordered by any court or other lawful authority to enroll or participate in an alcohol or drug rehabilitation program and did not successfully complete such program;
 4. prohibited by any court or other lawful authority from engaging in any insurance business, securities business, commodities futures businesses, mortgage banking business, banking, savings and loan, or credit union business, or gaming or wagering business;
 5. found by any court or other lawful authority to have committed a breach of trust, a breach of fiduciary duty, or a fraud upon creditors, insurers, employers, or consumers;
 6. removed from the position of director or officer of any other corporation;
 7. found by any court or other lawful authority to have been a cause for any disciplinary action imposed upon a business entity; or

- 8. had a license to practice law, public accounting, medicine, or pharmacy revoked by a court, regulatory or administrative authority or official.

Are you qualified to be director under these requirements?

Yes No

- 15. Choggiung Board members are expected to attend, and actively participate, in all meetings of the Board. The Board may meet as many as six times a year, run from two to three days, and can last up to 10 hours a day. Will your schedule allow you to commit to this obligation?

Yes No

- 16. If a vacancy occurs before the next annual meeting, would you be interested in filling that vacancy?

Yes No

- 17. Individuals selected by the Choggiung Nominating Committee as potential board candidates could be subject to a background check and/or an alcohol and drug screening test. Will you consent to such checks and/or screenings?

Yes No

Signature

Date

Please PRINT your name